Profile

Alan is a skilled and compassionate clinician with a high level of focus on guiding and supporting clients and their families through the complexities of the rehabilitation and recovery process. A thoughtful and effective case manager, Alan is thorough and proactive in his approach. Alan is a skilled collaborator with a robust knowledge of community services in both the statutory and private sector which supports him to create and deliver highly personalised care and support outcomes.

Alan is experienced in the treatment and management of a range of injuries affecting adults and children including brain injury, developmental delay, spinal cord injury, complex orthopaedic and polytrauma. He has a detailed understanding of how these injuries impact on the client's mental health and personal/social circumstances. He is highly skilled at structuring and leading goal focused interdisciplinary teams and acquiring the necessary resources to progress his clients.

Alan is an excellent written and verbal communicator, producing thorough, clinically robust reports. He demonstrates excellent interpersonal skills, providing the consistency and reassurance needed to develop strong trusting relationships with clients, their families and all stakeholders involved in the case. Alan understands the litigation process and the challenges this can sometimes place on the rehabilitation process and that this requires a balanced and flexible approach. He is aware of the need to be proactive as regards potential financial pressures associated with a case and the need to manage costs accordingly.

Alan has lived and worked in Spain and is a fluent Spanish speaker. He is often requested to support clients from this part of the world.
